LEADER

A city, a lodge or a store cannot fulfill its mission if it becomes like an old cat and sits down content and happy in its old rocking chair in the sun.

Please consider:

1. This store is as unlike what it first was as day is from night.
2. It created something not in existence before.
3. It has improved upon the past year by year.
4. It meets the demands of the present time.
5. The service is still human, but better and better every day.
6. There is no other exclusively retail stock of merchandise in any other store—even by half—in Central West Virginia as large, complete and well priced.

The truth can always stand best by herself.

Silk Petticoats Coming to Their Own

Every woman who buys an Autumn Dress or Suit, discovers that no other sort of skirt, or bloomers is quite so good to wear inside it.

Messalines in gay colors and sober, $1.95, $2.95, $3.95, $4.95. Silk Jersey tops with messaline flounces $3.95, $5 and $6.50. Crepes de chine in many colors $4.95 to $10.00.

Silk Jersey Pants, $3.50. Silk messaline pantaleppe Skirts, $4.95.

And a particularly good collection of extra sizes, black and quiet colors. $3.95 and $4.95.

Princess Slips Fit for Kings' Daughters

Plain or in many degrees of elaborateness, but all correct in line and fit and dainty in material. Silk Messaline and Crepe de Chine, embroidered and lace flounced in various ways. Also plain. $3.95 to $10.

They Are Asking for Skirts That are Different

And it is a satisfaction to have them; they are Fall Skirts with certain unique features. All show originality in design; so are they in novel fabrics, and all are beautifully tailored.

Black and white predominate, to be had in honeycomb checks, plaids, pin stripes and broad stripes, $5 to $15.

Six New Women's Shoes for Fall

Six new styles. It is a gay little show that'll interest young women.

FIRST: A black boot of lustrous silk for dressy wear as well as this cravatette model, also black. Both $4.

Another at $4 is a new ENGLISH LAST shown in gun metal and Russia Tan calf.

TAUPE BUCK, a clever grey boot for tailored suit or gown—seen at most fashionable resorts. Price $3.50.

Lastly—A BLACK FRENCH KID creation for tender feet. Price $3.50.

The Woman Seeking An Exclusive Style In a Suit Will Find a Varied Collection at Parsons-Souders

There is such an air of distinction about these suits. Each one stands out and away from all the others by reason of its own individuality. Their inspiration has come from the noted French makers, copying or modifying the radical designs to meet the approval of a more refined taste of our women. Splendid ideas in the cutaway and Russian blouse styles, and others besides.

There is only one of a kind in these suits—and that's one of the best things about them; the note of individuality is kept.

The colors are really wonderful—Russian green in a Cheviot Demasse Suit, a rich shade of terra cotta in eponge Matlaee; another, a Faille in smart Wisteria shade, and so on down a long list, including French blues, browns and combinations.

Discrimination in their selection permits us to put on display not only those that are authentically correct but with the satisfaction that they are exclusive, one only of a kind—and will not be seen in stores in this section. The determination to give our ladies—exclusive individual fashions has caused us to safeguard every buying motive and connection.

French Inspiration in the Afternoon Gowns

Some of the most clever of the Paris ideas have been copied in these dresses. A special group is priced $25, $30 and $35.

Among these are dresses suitable for evening wear, also Crepe de Chine, Charmeuse and Chiffon Cloth in a wide variety of colors.

Canton Crepes, Faille, Walrus Crepe, Poplins, brocaded meteors, wool crepes, in draped and eton blouse effects, are among the afternoon frocks.

Note: The same idea and exclusiveness of style is maintained in these dresses, in mostly all cases one of a kind only thus assuring you of a model all your own.

Redfern Corsets Mold the Figure to Supple Graceful Lines

Look at that line as shown in the picture—that slender, slightly curving line from shoulder to thigh. That is one of the "lines of youth"—lines that are in every woman's figure, merely waiting to be emphasized by the proper corset. There are many reasons why the Redfern is the proper corset. One of them—and it is vastly important—is that this corset gives any woman who wears it—who takes pains to wear it properly—the slender lines of real youth—minus any discomforts. There's a special Redfern corset for every woman's figure. Redfern corsets at $3.50 to $15. Warner's Rust Proofs at $1 to $3.50.

which the election of officers will take place and will be followed by an hour "for the good of the order."

There will be a number of matters of interest at brigade encampment at Camp Virgil A. Lewis throughout the entire day.

Several special items of amusement arranged for by the committee having the same in charge will be announced from the grand chancellor's chair and through the daily press each day, in order that those for whom they have been provided may be notified of the same.

W. Frank Stout, grand chancellor, has his headquarters in room 405 at the Waldo hotel, U. W. Ubanks, chairman of the credentials committee, has room 511, where delegates should report and receive their credentials.

An information bureau is maintained in the Hotel Gore.

Prominent Arrivals.

Among the officers and other prominent members of the Pythian orders who arrived in the city today for the annual conventions was Captain John W. Reed, past grand chancellor of Ohio Valley Lodge No. 31. He was busy nursing his boom for the office of Grand Outer Guard, the one most eagerly sought in the grand lodge because it is the one by which entry into grand lodge officership is customarily made. Captain Reed feels much encouraged over his prospects. The captain is known throughout the Pythian order in the state as the father of Battery A, No. 33, of Wheeling, the only company of artillery connected with a secret order in the world. He is familiarly known as "Jack" Reed and every Pythian knows him personally.

Mrs. Lavinia Haberdorf, of Wheeling, past grand chief of the Pythian Sisters, arrived Tuesday on the Short Line to attend the annual convention of that branch of Pythianism.

Captain Herbert C. Moore, of Wheeling, commissary on the staff of Col. John C. Medick, commanding the First regiment of the Uniform Rank of Pythians, was numbered among today's arrivals on the Short Line.

Edward Salade, of Wheeling, a representative of Ohio Valley lodge, No. 31 of the Pythians, and treasurer of Col. Shanley Company of the Uniform Rank, both of Wheeling, came in on the forenoon Short Line passenger train from the metropolis.

John Edward Wagner, past chancellor of Ohio Valley lodge, No. 31, of Wheeling, arrived at noon Tuesday via the Short Line.

Another prominent Pythian who arrived Tuesday and began looking after the work he will do in the grand lodge is Col. L. V. G. Morris, of Philippi, supreme representative of the grand lodge and secretary of the Pythian home board. Mr. Morris is well known in this city, which he frequently visits as clerk of the United States district court.

Charles W. Deltrich, of Wheeling, arrived on the forenoon Short Line train to represent Wheeling lodge No. 114, in the grand lodge convention. He is past chancellor of No. 114.

Frank S. Cox, of Wheeling, a member of the Pythian home board, arrived Tuesday.

FALL FURNITURE

is coming in every day. Our entire stock was bought early in July at the Chicago & Grand Rapids Furniture Expositions, where all the big manufacturers of the country have their entire output on display.

Our expert buyer spent two weeks there in selecting fall stock, ever keeping in mind the fact that Clarksburg people want the latest styles at the lowest possible price. The results of his visit to the Market are that our than ever before. In fact, you can get the same furniture here as carried by the big city stores, at about half the price.

We invite you to see our latest fall stock, while it is new, and compare prices. If we can not serve you best, we do not want to serve you at all.
